

Lukas Johnson

Head of Social Media & Promotion, Interpretive Naturalist
Auburn Heights Preserve
Delaware State Parks

Yorklyn Day 2018 is right around the corner and IT WILL BE BIGGER than last year! Yorklyn Delaware is a quaint, historic town with a charming atmosphere and gorgeous landscapes perfect for a family fun-filled event. Mark your calendar for Sunday, July 1st so you and your family don't miss out on the live music, food trucks, craft beer, vendors, kids' activities, and so much more! Kids will love special guest exhibitors like the well-renowned "edutainer" himself, Jungle John and his reptile friends. Auburn Heights Preserve State Park will also be hosting their awesome Steamin' Day activities where train rides, steam cars, and mansion tours are a huge hit! Yorklyn Day will take place from 11 a.m. to 5p.m. - six hours straight of non-stop fun and entertainment! Check out the Yorklyn Day event page on the Auburn Heights Preserve Facebook for more information and awesome sneak-peeks of what this year's event will be like.